

IQBID Referral Features

Opportunities for Offer Owners

Offer owners can share their products and services, and when sales are tracked via an affiliate link, the commission is automatically credited to the affiliate's wallet. The same applies to services, leads, clicks, and actions.

IQBID Referral gives offer owners the opportunity to integrate their own website, mobile app, or store to share with other affiliates, thereby increasing sales on their own website.

- Offer owners can integrate their own website/store.
- Offer owners can add their own commission program.
- Offer owners can add their own banners (images/links/text/video).
- Offer owners can share their program commission with all affiliates on the site.
- Offer owners can add their own physical products to the built-in store.
- Offer owners can add their own downloadable products to the built-in store.
- Offer owners can add their own coupons to provide discounts to their users.
- Offer owners can view their own orders and logs on the dashboard in their personal account.
