

What is IQBID AI Agent?

IQBID AI Agent is our cloud service for launching AI agents that allow you to work automation magic and solve tasks with the boundless imagination of artificial intelligence. For example, we can:

- Automatically create high-quality content at an industrial scale, including parsing and rewriting.
- Generate traffic to increase sales.
- Attract customers.
- Produce highly accurate reports.
- Automatically generate and publish videos, blogs, etc.
- Manage Telegram channels and bots.
- Significantly improve customer support.
- Automate sales and marketing.
- And much more...

IQBID AI Agent is already actively used to run complex marketing campaigns for capsule online business projects presented on IQBID Pods, which will significantly increase sales in the very near future.

In addition, IQBID AI Agent will incredibly "weave together" all IQBID services into a truly unified ecosystem, automate processes, and thereby significantly reduce IQBID infrastructure management costs, giving our users boundless opportunities, and investors even more profit and efficiency.

For example, IQBID Site can now offer our users the ability to automatically create a website in a matter of seconds based solely on a brief description of their task (prompt), including the desired design, and proper text and media content.

AI agents are the modern pinnacle of engineering thought, and IQBID is keeping pace with the trend at the level of major enterprises.
